

South Australia's
Industry Climate Change Conference

Thursday 20 April

|         |  |                        |
|---------|--|------------------------|
| 8.00am  | Registration Opens  | Central Counter |
| 8.45am  | WelcomeMartin HaeseChair, Premier's Climate Change Council   | Hall H          |
| 9.00am  | Welcome to CountryJack Buckskin  | Hall H          |
| 9.15am  | Opening AddressHon Peter Malinauskas MP , Premier of South Australia   | Hall H          |
| 9.45am  | Industry Keynote AddressJon Dee , Entrepreneur, Author, Broadcaster and Sustainability ExpertJon Dee is an award-winning social entrepreneur, broadcaster and campaigner. With 36 years of industry experience, Jon is a high-profile expert in the field of business sustainability. In 2020, Jon was named "the leading Australian figure in sustainability and the environment" by Michael Liebreich, the founder of Bloomberg New Energy Finance. In total, Jon has written and presented 700 different business sustainability news stories and interviews. His business guidebooks 'Sustainable Growth', 'EnergyCut' and 'EnergySmart' have moved over 140,000 copies. As the industry keynote speaker on Day 1, Jon Dee will share how climate change is impacting business as usual and that to remain competitive in the future, enterprises are embracing and adapting to the low emissions economy.                             | Hall H          |
| 10.15am | Federal Government AddressHon Chris Bowen MP , Minister for Climate Change and Energy Government of Australia  | Hall H          |
| 10.45am | Morning Tea   | Hall JK         |
| 11.15am | Net Zero Global TransitionRebecca Mikula-Wright , CEO Investor Group on Climate Change   | Hall H          |
| 11.45am | Panel DiscussionIs net zero good for South Australia's small and family business sectors? Small and family-owned businesses are the majority of enterprises across most industry sectors in South Australia. This first panel discussion unpacks the opportunities that climate change, emissions reduction and sustainability provide for business and enterprise owners and their stakeholders. The Panel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Andrew Kay, Chief Executive Officer, Business SA, Chamber of Commerce and Industry South Australia</li><li>• Jenny Paradiso, Managing Director, Suntrix</li><li>• Nick Palousis, Managing Director 2XE and Co-Founder of Accelerate Zero</li><li>• Hon Andrea Michaels MP, Minister for Small and Family Business, Government of South Australia</li></ul> Facilitator: Martin Haese (Chair, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia) | Hall H          |
| 12.30pm | Lunch   | Hall JK         |
| 1.30pm  | Panel DiscussionFactoring climate risk into your business and investment strategy. Future climate scenarios are impacting future business and investment strategies. The panel will discuss the commercial, governance and supply chain risks that climate change poses to businesses, investment attraction, and international trade in South Australia. The Panel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Professor Richard Turner, Serial Entrepreneur, Deputy Chair, Premier's Climate Change Council</li><li>• To Be Confirmed</li><li>• To Be Confirmed</li><li>• To Be Confirmed</li></ul> Facilitator: Penny Schulz (Member, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia)  | Hall H          |

* Program subject to change

Thursday 20 April continued

| Thursday 20 April continued |  |                       |
|-----------------------------|--|-----------------------|
| 2.30pm                      | Industry Interviews   |                       |
|                             | Decarbonising the construction sectorThe construction industry is one of the largest employers in South Australia. This in-depth interview unpacks how climate change is shaping future trends in this vitally important sector.The Industry Expert: Craig Holden, Director, Forme Projex and Chair State Planning Commission of South AustraliaThe interviewer: Daniel Bennett (Member, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia)The format: 30-minute interview followed by 15 minutes of Q&amp;A from the audience.  | Hall F                |
|                             | Decarbonising mining, manufacturing and heavy industryMuch has been said about the decarbonisation of heavy industry, the growth in demand for rare earths, and the impacts on resources sector. This presentation unpacks climate change from a mining, manufacturing and industrial processes perspective and discusses how innovation is playing a role in shaping the future.The Industry Expert: Felicity Lloyd, Chief Executive Officer, HILT CRCThe interviewer: Susan Jeanes (Member, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia)The format: 30-minute interview followed by 15 minutes of Q&amp;A from the audience. | Hall G                |
|                             | Decarbonising the services sectorThe services sector includes health, retail, hospitality, professional services and much more. The interviews will discuss trends in decarbonising the services sector and a future net zero emissions consumer economy.The Industry Experts: John O'Brien, Partner, Decarbonisation, Deloitte and Professor Nicola Spurrier, Chief Public Health Officer, Government of South AustraliaThe interviewer: Sandy Verschoor (Member, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia)The format: 30-minute interview followed by 15 minutes of Q&amp;A from the audience.                     | Hall H                |
|                             | Low emissions agricultureThe agricultural sector is a key driver for South Australian exports. With a focus on cropping, grazing, carbon farming and soil management, this interview discusses the impacts of climate change and the trends and innovations across the agricultural sector.The Industry Expert: Professor Richard Eckard, Professor of Sustainable Agriculture and Director of the Primary Industries Climate Challenges Centre.The interviewer: Penny Schulz (Member, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia)The format: 30-minute interview followed by 15 minutes of Q&amp;A from the audience.        | Riverbank Rooms 2 - 4 |
| 3.15pm                      | Afternoon Tea   |                       |
| 3.45pm                      | Industry interviews   |                       |
|                             | Digital solutions for decarbonisation and carbon accountingTechnology is playing a pivotal role in delivering climate change solutions. This interview discusses how ClimateTech is rapidly becoming a growth sector and how the building an understanding on the emergence of carbon accounting is essential for the business community.The Industry Expert: Allys Todd (Founder, Val Ai) James Bartholomew ( Vice President Strategic Solutions, Salesforce)The interviewer: Craig Wilkins (Member, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia)The format: 30-minute panel session  | Hall H                |
|                             | The future of transportThe transport sector is undergoing a global revolution as electric vehicles, hydrogen vehicles and biofuels dominate the daily media cycle. This panel interview unpacks the decarbonisation of the transport sector and what South Australia's transport infrastructure, vehicles and networks are likely to look like in the future.The Industry Experts: Nick Reade (Chief Executive Officer RAA)The interviewer: Daniel Conley (Member, Premier's Climate Change Council, Government of South Australia)The format: 30-minute panel session.  | Hall F                |
| 4.15pm                      | Industry Interview: Carbon MarketsThis timely and insightful interview explores carbon pricing, carbon credits, carbon trading and carbon markets and their relevance, and opportunities for the business community in South Australia.The Industry Experts: Martijn Wilder (CEO of Pollination), Alex Toone (Executive General Manager - Commodities, Trade &amp; Carbon, Commonwealth Bank).The interviewer: Neil McFarlane (Director of Climate Change, Department for Environment and Water, Government of South Australia)The format: 30-minute interview followed by 15 minutes of Q&amp;A from the audience.                                | Hall H                |
| 5.00pm                      | Day 1 CloseMartin Haese, Chair, Premier's Climate Change Council   | Hall H                |

* Program subject to change

| Friday 21 April |  |               |
|-----------------|--|---------------|
| 8.00am          | Registration Opens  | Hall F        |
| 8.45am          | MC WelcomeMartin Haese , Chair, Premier's Climate Change Council   | Hall F        |
| 9.00am          | Welcome to Country and scene settingClimate Change and First Nations  | Hall F        |
| 9.15am          | Day 2 Opening AddressHon Dr Susan Close MP , Deputy Premier of South Australia Minister for Climate, Environment and Water Government of South Australia   | Hall F        |
| 9.45am          | Day 2 Industry Keynote AddressTim Jarvis AM , Environmental Explorer, Adventurer, Author and Film MakerThere is no Planet B.A confronting and inspiring presentation from Tim Jarvis, environmental explorer, adventurer, author and documentary film maker who has witnessed firsthand the grave impacts of climate change.  | Hall F        |
| 10.15am         | Morning Tea   | Hall JK       |
| 10.45am         | Workshop SessionsDay 2 is intended to harvest the wisdom of the audience whereby delegates choose the topic(s) that are of most interest to them. Eight breakout sessions (four at a time) will unpack of the major topics introduced in Day 1. Each breakout session will be led by a different State Government Department, have an expert facilitator, feature an industry case-study and have a member from the Premier's Climate Change Council (PCCC) in attendance. The objective at the end of each session is to understand the opportunities and impediments climate change and a low emissions economy presents for each sector. |               |
|                 | Group 1 Topic: Decarbonising transport (electric vehicles, tech and fuel transition).   | Hall G        |
|                 | Group 2 Topic Consumer expectations of a net zero future.   | Hall F        |
|                 | Group 3 Topic Pathways to decarbonise construction, buildings and public infrastructure.  | Riverbank 2-4 |
|                 | Group 4 Topic Regulatory mechanisms to achieve net zero.  | Riverbank 6-8 |
| 12.15pm         | Lunch   | Hall JK       |
| 1.15pm          | Workshop Sessions   |               |
|                 | Group 5 Topic Decarbonising the livestock sector.   | Hall G        |
|                 | Group 6 Topic How emissions reduction in wine production can help improve export outcomes.  | Riverbank 2-4 |
|                 | Group 7 Topic Greening manufacturing, mining and heavy industry.  | Hall F        |
|                 | Group 8 Topic Fundamentals of carbon accounting.  | Riverbank 6-8 |

* Program subject to change

|        |  |         |
|--------|--|---------|
| 3pm    | Closing PlenaryMartin Haese , Chair, Premier's Climate Change Council  | Hall F  |
| 3:15pm | Conference CloseHon Dr Susan Close MP , Deputy Premier of South Australia Minister for Climate, Environment and WaterGovernment of South Australia | Hall F  |
| 3.30pm | Day 2 CloseAfternoon Tea  | Hall JK |

* Program subject to change